A MESSAGE FROM THE NATIONAL PRESIDENT

Greetings Sorors,

As you may know, Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. is deeply rooted in a rich history of supporting the arts. From the establishment of the Arts and Letters Commission and DST Telecommunications in 1973, the commissioning and unveiling of the statue "Fortitude" in 1979, to the establishment of the Delta Authors on Tour, Delta Sigma Theta proudly shines a spotlight on African-American artists and authors.

In the following document, you will have the opportunity to peruse the creative works of over 200 authors who are not only published authors, but also members of our illustrious sisterhood! Their work is sure to inspire, entertain and challenge you – spiritually and mentally. Feel free to share this list with your book clubs, church groups, relatives and sister-friends.

Thank you to those sorors who submitted a small piece of themselves to be included in the 2015-2016 Delta Authors Directory. I encourage other authors and those aspiring to be published authors to answer your calling, complete the journey, get published (or self-publish), and join the DAOT so that all of your sorors can experience your work.

Again, welcome to our fabulous Delta Authors Directory and happy reading!

In Service, Leadership and Empowerment,

Paulette C. Walker

Dr. Paulette C. Walker
National President

Dear Sorors,

Welcome to the 2015-2016 "Delta Authors on Tour". On behalf of the National Arts and Letters Commission, we are pleased with the support our talented authors have received this year. We want to express the gratitude of the entire commission. We are especially proud of the success of the tour where both the writers and the readers were able to interact and conduct dialogue over books and the writing process.

Chapters in some regions were co-hosts for these events. The tour provided exposure for both new and more established authors. Each year there is an expansion of the variety and category of books that are on the tour. Many of the authors are beginning to have a following and are able to expand the resources needed to be able to dedicate more time to their craft. The tour is produced by a brilliant team of workers who consistently aim for high results. We are continuing to achieve substantial success and growth, and have built eminent goodwill in the communities where the tours are held.

We are immensely proud of the authors who joined us during the 2014-2015 DAOT; that brought commitment and a wealth of talent, skills and enthusiasm. We are looking forward to the same or greater enthusiasm from the 2015-2016 team of authors who makes up the upcoming DAOT.

Sisterly,

Essie M. Jeffries

Only authors in this year's directory are eligible to participate in the 2015-16 DAOT. At least one will be held in each of the seven regions. The chapters hosting have answered the call in supporting our Delta authors and will partner with the Commission to continue keeping DAOT alive and well. The chapters and months are listed below. We are thankful for the above chapters in advance for all their hard work and for their efforts in making their DAOT stop 'Red Carpet' amazing. In addition, the goal is to have 22 chapters doing a DAOT event during our 2016-2017 sorority year. We encourage chapters to contact headquarters if they are interested in hosting for the 2016-2017 sorority year. Specifically, it must be your chapter president that requests guidelines to hosting DAOT from headquarters. With excitement, we thank Birmingham Alumnae, Inglewood Alumnae, and San Antonio Alumnae for already letting us know they are ready to go during the next cycle.

The authors within this directory want to visit your chapters and as you see from their titles below, you'll find books that will align with your chapter's agenda, touch on the sorority's mission and fit your own personal interest. The Arts and Letters Commission is pleased to collectively introduce these authors to you. Let the second edition of our grand Authors Directory begin!

**Contact E. Missy Daniels (emdaniels@deltasigmitheta.org) at national headquarters for specific DAOT dates and times and/or for information and consideration on hosting a DAOT event for the 2016-2017 sorority year.*
