

Sponsored by
The Quilted History of El Dorado, Arkansas

Rhythm of HBCUs

Right Here at Home
A Teachable Moment in Our History

Nationally renowned choirs from the following Historically
Black Colleges and Universities
(HBCUs):

UNIVERSITY of ARKANSAS
AT PINE BLUFF

Tuskegee University

Tuskegee University, Alabama
Alcorn State University, Mississippi
Mississippi Valley State University
Southern University, Louisiana
University of Arkansas at Pine Bluff

Alcorn State University

Southern University

Mississippi Valley State University

February 18, 19 (9:00am – 6:00pm) & 20 (1:00pm – 4:00pm), 2016

Award Banquet February 20, 6:00pm (Ticketed Event)

El Dorado Conference Center
311 S. West Ave.
El Dorado, AR 71730

❖ Special Guests Include: ❖

Henri Linton – Director, University Museum and Cultural Center – African American exhibit.

Dr. Michele Wright – Renowned Author, Entrepreneur & Leader – Guest Speaker

Dr. Claud Anderson – Motivational Speaker & Author

Mr. Ron McMillon – National Recording Artist

Rev. Silas E. Redd – President, Daisy Gatson-Bates Museum, Little Rock – Guest Speaker

Other Featured Speakers: To Be Announced

This historical event is hosted by The Quilted History, a nonprofit 501(c)3 Museum and Cultural Organization. Public and private schools, churches, and the general public are invited to attend and participate.

For more information please contact Ms. Carolyn Williams 870-881-0443, preciousmw@gmail.com

Ebenezer – A Stone of Hope