

Rhythm of HBCUS

Right Here at Home
A Teachable Moment in Our History

The following Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCUs) Concert Choirs will be performing:

✦Tuskegee University✦ ✦Alcorn State University✦ ✦Mississippi Valley State University✦
✦Southern University, Louisiana✦ ✦University of Arkansas at Pine Bluff✦

Promoting Education, Education, Education!!!

Dr. Claud Anderson

The Quilted History, a 501(c)3 organization established in 1999, will host the 2016 Rhythm of HBCU's four-state event which will be held February 18 – 20, 2016 at the El Dorado Convention Center. During the first two days (Thursday, February 18th and Friday, February 19th), five HBCUs Choirs will be featured in concert, while the final day, Saturday, February 20th, will climax with both concerts and an Awards Banquet.

Dr. Michele Wright

The Inaugural “The Quilted Legacy” Awards Banquet will honor three distinguished local and national honorees (Dr. Claud Anderson, Dr. Michele Wright, Mr. Ron McMillon) with the first ever esteemed The Quilted History's 2016 “Rhythm of Life” Legacy Award in honor of the stitching they have done for the African American History, the mending they have done for the voiceless, the piecing of hope they have done for the youth, and the covering of the world they have contributed with love. Their “Outspoken Voices” have been the needle of dreams, inspiration and rhythm throughout our community.

Mr. Ron McMillon

This will truly be an unforgettable weekend, as The Quilted History will again promote Education, Education, Education. Thus, for more information and/or to support this noteworthy event, please call or fax Mrs. Carolyn Williams, Owner and Curator of The Quilted History at (870) 881-0443.