

YOU'RE INVITED! & SPREAD THE WORD

Reading and Writing for Success Festival BLACK HISTORY MONTH CELEBRATION SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 2013

Success Sessions · Books · Children's Book Illustration Discussion
Authors · Signings · and more!

9:00 a.m. Sign-in, Networking, Meet and Greet the Authors

9:45 a.m. Welcome and Acknowledgements

Jimmy Jean and Edmond Davis, Arkansas Baptist College

James Lawson, Sherman Park Community Development Corporation

Patrick M. Oliver, Say It Loud! Readers and Writers

10:00 a.m. Black History Month Tribute

Publisher, author and former White House Presidential diarist Janis F. Kearney will share about her new book Daisy: Between a Rock and a Hard Place.

Question and answer session to follow.

10:30 a.m. If You Don't Know Me, You Can't Teach Me

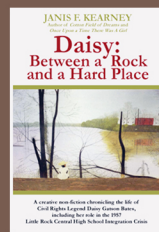

Educational leader, author, and former special education teacher and administrator Dr. Latanya L. Fanion. Dr. Fanion is author of Why is Your House Bigger Than Mine.

Question and answer session to follow.

11:00 a.m. Mixing it Up with Local Authors and Activist

Local authors read from their works and share about the process of developing book from concept to finished product. Confirmed Edmond Davis, Jason Irby, Dr. Akasha Hull, Patrick Oliver, Robin White, Angela Williams, Henry Dumas Foundation, Dr. Michele Wright and others. Question and answer session to follow.

11:30 to 1:00 p.m. Meet the Authors, book signings, networking and more

LOCATION

Arkansas Baptist College
Old Main Building Auditorium
1621 Martin Luther King, Jr. Drive
Little Rock, AR 72202

FREE & OPEN TO THE PUBLIC!

Inquiries, group and individual RSVP: info@speakloudly.com

Event is hosted in part by:
Arkansas Baptist College, Arkansas Black History Quiz, Aviate Through Knowledge, Sherman Park Community Development Corporation and Say It Loud! Readers and Writers.