Sister Friends United Women of Excellence Awards announced

Debrah Mitchell posted on March 26, 2010 02:09

Sister Friends United, Inc. will be hosting their second annual "Women of Excellence Awards and Scholarship Banquet" on Saturday, May 15, 2010 at the Wyndham Riverfront Hotel, Two Riverfront Place, North Little Rock.

Sister Friends United is a non-profit organization of women that empower and uplift its members as well as the women and families of the community by providing informative meetings, various workshops, benefits and educational scholarships that help make a difference in the community.

The formal event honors women in the community that have excelled in their respective fields and have served as an inspiration in the fields of religion, education, social service, media and business. Last year's recipients included, Annie Abrams, Dr. Katherine Mitchell, Evangeline Parker, Korto Momolu and Dr. Emma K. Rhodes.

This year's honorees include Jacquelyn Parker, principal of Clinton Elementary, Dr. Michele R. Wright, success expert, Alice Lovelace, local minister, Jannie Isom-Cotton, CEO of Professional Counseling Associates and Debrah Mitchell, editorial director of STAND! News. Two high school seniors will also be recognized and awarded scholarships for any Arkansas College of their choice.

Immediately following the banquet will be a Celebration of Achievement with entertainment provided by DJ Silky Slim until midnight.

Tickets for the awards banquet are $25 if purchased by April 25 and $35 after and up until the night of the event. Admission includes access to the Celebration of Achievement. Tickets for just the Celebration of Achievement can be purchased for $10 in advance or $15 at the door.

Tickets for both events can be purchased by calling (501) 786-1801 or from any member. Please send all email correspondence to: SISTERFRIENDSUNITEDLR@YAHOO.COM.
