

You're Invited and Spread the Word!

Saturday, December 1, 2012

Reading and Writing for Success Festival

Success Sessions • Books • Art • Holiday Gifts • Refreshments • Music • Over 20 Authors

9:00 a.m. Sign-in, Networking and Holiday Vendors

10:00 a.m. Welcome and Acknowledgements

Janice Wilson, Principal, Rockefeller Elementary School

Frank Bateman, Arkansas Black History Quiz

Patricia Edgerson, University of Arkansas for Medical Science Center for Diversity Affairs

James Lawson, Sherman Park Community Development Corporation

Patrick M. Oliver, Say It Loud! Readers and Writers

10:30 a.m. Successful Sisters Power Panel

Authors share their SUCCESS ingredients for life, education and career.

Panelist: Martha Dixon, Janis F. Kearney, Alice Faye Duncan and Dr. Michele Wright

11:15 a.m. Hey Everybody I'm Going To Be A Doctor

Eric Ware, musician and math instructor will be joined by students from UAMS CDA Summer Program Hey Everybody I'm Going to be a Doctor

11:30 p.m. Closing Keynote – Return to the Source

Dr. Lathardus Goggins II, education intervention specialist, youth advocate and author Bringing the Light Into A New Day

12:30 to 1:30 p.m. Fellowshiping, book signings, holiday shopping and more

Where: Rockefeller Elementary School
700 East 17th Street
Little Rock, AR 72206

Music by DJ Prophet and other special guest

Catering will be provided by Sweet Soul

Free and Open to Public

Vendor inquiries, group and individual RSVP: info@speakloudly.com

Event is hosted in part by: Arkansas Black History Quiz, UAMS Center for Diversity Affairs, Sherman Park Community Development Corporation and Say It Loud! Readers and Writers.

